Jim Robson

Mayor Nielson declared the hearing open at 7:15 p.m. and announced that the meeting had been duly advertised according to law. He then invited the public to participate in the hearing. Mr. Jim Robson said that he was against allowing car sales at gas stations because of possible space problems. Councilman Bird informed Mr. Robson that the proposed ordinance would allow only three cars to be displayed at any one time. Mr. Robson withdrew his protest. Pat Davies objected to the proposed ordinance on the grounds that the public notice of the hearing was misleading and didn't inform citizens of Delta that car sales at gas stations was being
